

Your Tour Consultant

Save a bundle on FAM costs and tour setup costs with your local Southwest Tour Consultant.

1. Terence will offer you first-hand expertise building your tour itinerary for your group tours.
2. Work directly with vendors as usual then use BTD as your local Representative to add the personal and creative touch.
3. Anyway your guests go, they'll see, experience, and learn how: the Ancient Ones traveled and worked the land, how modern technologies shaped a people, how an economy and the environment built diverse cultures.
4. Above all, after the city-life, your clientele will explore secluded wilderness sights, rich cultures, and spectacular natural history.

Event Coordination

With more than 10 years of coordinating events and logistics, Terence can take care of the big and the small details of your local events, offering: a/v setup, catering services, site setup, marketing & promotional communications expertise - local & national, commitment to details, attentiveness to your needs.

Southwest Native

Terence knows the Southwest & Four Corners Region as a native born and raised in NM. With some 27 years living in New Mexico and Colorado and extensive travel in the surrounding states, he is quite familiar with the Southwest USA. Given his many years of multicultural formation, welcoming and guiding foreign visitors from Canada, Latin America, as well as Europe and other parts of the world come naturally.

He finds great pleasure serving people of all ages, and is quite comfortable with the 50 and over crowd. His natural enthusiasm comes from many years on the farm and his love of the outdoors. His personable nature allows him to bring to life history, culture, and each place he tours with a smile. With anthropology studies, a strong university science formation, a formation in Up with People, and a love and knowledge of history, geology, and archeology, Terence accommodates you or your clientele when you need a knowledgeable Guide or skilled Tour Director.

Long-time service as a Tour Guide, Tour Director, Event Coordinator, Transportation and Excursion Manager, and social worker demonstrate Terence's keen sense of people-skills and logistics management, key to guiding your tours.

*BTD offers very reasonable guided-tour rates.
Half-day, Full-day, Multi-day for the Four Corner's Region, the Southwest USA, and beyond.*
